

Getting to the TUDUBLIN (Cathal Brugha)

---

TUDUBIN (formerly DIT)

Technological University Dublin (TU Dublin) is Ireland's first Technological University, offering a unique range of programmes and disciplines, with pathways to graduation from foundation and apprenticeship to undergraduate and doctoral levels. TU Dublin is the university where the arts, business, sciences, engineering and technology converge and its 28,500 students and researchers come from all over Ireland and from all parts of the globe.

By Bus or Luas:

TUDUBLIN, Cathal Brugha Street is right in Dublin city centre, just off O'Connell Street and is served well by bus and Luas (Green Line).

- You should take the Luas to either the Jervis or Abbey Street stops - both are within minutes walk of the main TU Dublin - City Campuses.
- You should exit the bus on Dame Street outside the Central Bank if you are going to the northside campuses (including Cathal Brugha)

Travelling by Bike around the city

TU Dublin is committed to sustainable travel. Refer to the Journey Planner website for all cycling routes within Dublin city to help you reach your destination.

From Heuston train station to All City Campuses

If you are arriving from cities in the south and west like Cork, Galway, Limerick and Waterford, your train will arrive in Heuston Station. Upon arrival you should exit the station and board either the Red Luas towards The Point or bus number 145 towards Kilmacanogue.

Car parking facilities are available:

- There is pay-parking in the nearby Q-Park Clerys in Marlborough Street, North City, Dublin, D01 W207

Visit <http://www.ibioli.net> for more information on the activities and role of the Institute of Biology of Ireland.